So what's it all about?

THE rapidinchloss CLINIC

Our non-surgical Ultrasonic Liposuction makes losing inches from areas of your body such as your belly, hips, arms, legs and back easy! Those stubborn fatty areas of your body you would like to change will become flatter and firmer, in as few as 12 sessions of completely painless Ultrasonic Liposuction. You will be massaged, twice a week with ultrasound by our qualified, experienced consultants, ensuring you are looking and feeling fabulous!

We use Ultrasound technology similar to the kind used to carry out baby scans in hospitals, we even use the same gel. During the painless therapy all you will feel is a nice, warm sensation. This warm sensation is the fat turning to liquid and beginning to drain from your body.

As the Ultrasound passes through the fat cells inside your body it causes them to vibrate against each other, this causes the fat inside to change from a semi-solid state and to become a liquid. Once liquefied, the fat will begin to drain from the cell. The fat then passes through the lymph node system and exits the body through the digestive system in the normal manner. The fat will continue to drain from the body for the next 72 hours. To maximise lymph drainage and achieve the best results we recommend increasing activity levels to increase blood circulation.

Your consultant will chart your success and let you know exactly how many inches you have lost since your last session by measuring your target area before each treatment. We expect clients will need somewhere between 8 – 12 sessions per area to achieve their goals. You should allow 30 minutes per appointment and 3 days should be allowed between treatments.

Mrs MacLean said that the panel's revised allowance figures were based on a formula that is linked to average earnings in the town

Councillors opt not to reduce allowances

THE chairwoman of a panel which recommended that councillor allowances be reduced by £500 has said she is 'disappointed' the proposals have not been implemented.

Josephine MacLean, who heads the Independent Remuneration Panel, said that a reduction of the basic allowance for councillors at Luton Council from £7,500 per year to £7,000 would 'reflect' the position of residents in the town.

During a council meeting on Wednesday the plans were rejected by the Labour party, who instead voted to freeze the current allowance.

The move was supported by the leader of the Conservatives Cllr Michael Garrett who said that 'low allowances could discourage potential councillors from standing for the position'.

However, the decision was criticised by Liberal Democrat leader Cllr David Franks who said it reinforced the perception that councillors 'are only in it for themselves'.

Mrs MacLean said: "The average wage in the town has gone down and at the moment we have a lot of people looking for jobs and times are hard. We are disappointed that they didn't accept our recommendations that the allowance should reflect the situation in Luton."

Councillors can still decide to take a voluntary £500 pay cut but it is unclear at the moment how many will do so.

Council in £9.3m hole over busway

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

THE construction costs for the Luton Dunstable busway are currently over budget by more than £4 million, we can reveal.

Construction and design costs for the project have risen from an initial contract price of £51.6m to a 'target cost' of £55.7m.

And Luton and Central Bedfordshire Councils have a shortfall of £5.2m in its required £9.83m contribution to the £89.2m scheme which is being Government funded.

The figures are in a document due to be discussed during a council meeting on Tuesday.

The busway has been plagued by delays in recent months and is set to be open for business later than expected this year.

In recent years the council has undertaken a number of major projects in such as the M1 Junction 10A improvement scheme and the Luton Town Centre Transport Scheme in the past few years.

Both the above projects and the busway have been identified as being 'high risk' in the 2013/14 budget which was passed during Full Council on Wednesday.

Liberal Democrat leader Councillor David Franks has criticised the council's handling of the scheme.

He said: "Major capital schemes run by Luton Council rarely come in on time or on budget and I have always thought their expectations of financial contributions from developers was optimistic."

"It is no surprise to me that the busway looks like leaving a £9.3M headache. The scandal is that none of the senior Labour councillors seems to have seen it coming and they are still denying it's a problem."

"What they will not say is where the money is going to come from, my guess is that they will end up borrowing it which will lead to more problems with interest charges and repayments."

A council spokesman said: "The council reported as long ago as October 2011 that the target cost for the construction contract had risen to £55.2m from the tender price of £51.6m.

"The construction contract is however, only one element of the overall project and, while its costs have increased since the Final Approval Business Case was submitted to the Government, and are currently estimated at £55.75m."

"Luton and Central Bedfordshire councils have been able to secure savings on the overall cost of land acquisition which compensates for this."

"Under the terms of the funding agreement with the Government, Luton and Central Bedfordshire Councils are required to underwrite the local contribution of £9.8million to the scheme's capital costs."

The spokesman added that the £5.2m shortfall was a result of third party finances being impacted by recession and that both councils were seeking 'external funding sources while closely monitoring the risks'.

Youth sentenced after being found with gun

BY CARL MUNGAZI
carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

A 16-year-old has been given a 12-month custody sentence for being found in possession of a loaded hand gun, a lock knife and ammunition.

The youth, who Luton on Sunday cannot name due to legal reasons and has no previous convictions, was sentenced on Tuesday at Luton Youth Court.

The teen will spend six months in custody before undertaking a six month training order.

He pleaded guilty to the charges soon after being arrested and he had been put on an electronically monitored curfew.

During proceedings the court heard how the boy, who was 15 at the time of the offence, had been standing on Dunstable Road on November 15 last year.

Bedfordshire Police officers who were patrolling the area approached him as they thought he was looking suspicious but the youth ran away.

As the police pursued the boy they saw him throw a bag away before going to hide behind a parked car. On recovering the bag officers found inside a loaded Walther P38 self-loading pistol (pictured) with four live rounds, including three hollow point bullets designed to expand on impact.

They also found a lock knife by a car near where the youth had been crouching.

The court heard how the teenager said he was unsure of what was in the bag, but suspected that 'it contained an unlawful item'.

Before passing judgement the magistrate said: "We have given this serious consideration. The offences when taken together are so serious that only custody is sufficient."

Speaking after the sentencing, Detective Inspector Martin Peters said: "I am satisfied that a dangerous individual has been removed from our streets and will not be able to cause any more fear or harm to residents.

"This individual was not afraid to carry a loaded weapon and we have to be thankful that there was not an opportunity for the gun to be used.

"While the actual threat caused by gun crime is very small and does not affect the vast majority of law abiding people within Bedfordshire, we are not complacent about the dangers posed by these weapons.

"We would therefore urge anyone who has information about people who carry or have access to illegal weapons to have the courage to come forward and speak to the police.

"With the help of the public we can rid our county of the weapons and reduce the small number of people affected by gun crime still further."

'Prolific' robber guilty of theft

A WOMAN has admitted stealing over £600 worth of goods from town centre stores.

Alieyah Gonjales, 28, of Old Bedford Road, Luton, pleaded guilty to four charges of theft at Luton Magistrates Court on Wednesday.

The court heard that Gonjales visited the British Home Stores (BHS) shop on George Street on January, 5th where she stole two quilted bed throws worth £200.

When caught, she was also found to have £20 worth of items from Peacocks on her.

She returned to BHS on January 30, and took a bed set valued at £65, and again on February 16, where she attempted to take a bed linen set and other household items which totalled £347.

Defence solicitor James Bailey-Woodward admitted that Gonjales was a 'prolific robber', but said that she needed help with an addiction to heroin and crack cocaine.

She was released on conditional bail and will next appear at Luton Magistrates Court on March 14.

Bridge fall man bruised

A MAN who fell from a footbridge in rush hour traffic has miraculously escaped with just cuts and bruises.

Police officers were called to the busy Telford Way roundabout in Luton at around 6pm on Thursday after receiving calls from the public saying they saw the man fall from the bridge and land on the road.

Cars and buses quickly stopped and were able to block off the road and stop any more traffic getting onto the roundabout until the emergency services arrived.

The man, who is believed to be in his 20's was treated by paramedics from the ambulance service at the scene before being rushed to Luton & Dunstable Hospital.

One witness said: "He's had a lucky escape - it's quite a height to fall from."

"The cars did well to stop and prevent this incident from being a lot worse."

A spokesman for the police said: "It appears that the individual has managed to escape with a cut to the back of the head and a few bruises."

"He was put on a spinal board for precautionary measures and taken to the hospital where he was kept in and monitored overnight."

Telford Way was closed at the junction with Dunstable Road to enable the emergency services to deal with the incident.

Husband charged with Sam's murder

BY LAUREN ARCHELL
lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

A 25-YEAR-OLD man has been charged with stabbing to death his wife, who has been described by her grieving family as a "ray of sunshine".

Ty Medland, of Cavell Avenue, Peacehaven, East Sussex, appeared at Brighton Magistrates' Court on Wednesday accused of murdering Samantha Medland, 24, from Luton.

The case was adjourned and will be heard at Lewes Crown Court at a later date.

Police were called to Queen Square in Brighton on Sunday, February 17 at 8.45pm, following a report that a woman had received serious stab wounds.

Samantha was found at the scene with serious injuries and was taken to hospital but sadly died a short time later.

Her mother, Amelia Greening, of Upwell Road, Luton, has since paid tribute to her 'ray of sunshine.'

She said: "Samantha was a friendly, well loved and well known girl."

"She loved going out with her friends, and was the life and soul of the party."

"Everywhere she went, everywhere she worked, she just made more and more friends."

"This has come as a massive, massive shock."

"The first we knew of it was when we got a knock at the door from police at 1am on Monday morning."

"I'm overwhelmed by the number of messages that I have received since I heard the news, they are keeping me going."

"My thoughts are with her friends as much as her friends' thoughts are with me."

TRAGIC: Samantha's husband has been charged with her murder

"They all meant the world to her."

"She is leaving behind two sisters and a brother, a niece and nephew who miss her dearly already."

Samantha, whose maiden name was Greening-Hussey, grew up in Luton, attending Crawley Green Infant School, Wenlock Junior School and Ashcroft School. Police thanked the public for their help with the inquiry, code-named Operation Westfield.

Detective Chief Inspector Mark Preston, of the Surrey and Sussex major crime team, said: "Our thoughts are with the family of Sam as they try to come to terms with her death."

Workers receiving high daily wages

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

PAYMENTS of up to £580 per day have been made to individuals working for Luton Council, it has been revealed.

The wages, seen by the Luton on Sunday, have been paid to at least 14 interim workers at various points during the last two years.

All payments were made to interim staff, of which 12 worked five days a week, with one working four days and a project accountant who worked on various days.

Among the earners was a former interim head of Adult Social Care, who received £580 a day and a former head of Housing and Fixed Assets who was on £550 a day.

'Change Leader' refers

The council currently employs 215 agency workers to staff on the Luton Excellence team which has been tasked with identifying savings which can be made at the authority.

A council spokeswoman said: "The council will from time to time employ either additional or specialist resource on an ad-hoc basis where this cannot be met by the existing establishment.

"Interims are engaged to cover existing vacancies which are either hard to fill on a permanent basis or are subject to restructuring proposals and are therefore best covered by flexible resources."

She added that consultants were a 'source of specialist knowledge and experience' not readily available internally.

High-paid staff in spotlight

MORE than £23 million was spent on highly paid council staff in the last year.

Research carried out by the Taxpayers' Alliance (TPA) shows Central Bedfordshire Council paid 'remuneration' to 207 people, in 2011/12 which totalled £12.9 million, while Luton Council handed out at least £50,000 to 156 staff at a sum of £10.3 million. Both authorities have said they are working to reduce the numbers of staff in such roles.

Cllr Maurice Jones, at Central Beds, said its figures showed there were 199 people who received more than £50,000 and the majority were teachers.

He added: "We have undertaken a review and reduced this tier of management by 25 per cent."

A spokesman for Luton Council said: "Due to budget cuts, the council undertook a review which resulted in a reduction of one corporate director post and the number of heads of service being reduced from 23 to just 15 - an annual saving of over £500,000."

Over £4m owed to courts in county

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

MORE than £4 million in court fines is owed to courts in Bedfordshire, a Freedom of Information request has revealed.

The figures, released by Her Majesty's Courts & Tribunals Service (HMCTS), show that in September 2012 the amount of fines owed to courts in the county stood at £4,286,800.

Between April 2007-September 2012, £3,685,200 was 'legally cancelled' after cases had been reconsidered by judges whilst £2,967,000 was 'administratively cancelled' as a result of individuals dying, permanently emigrating or becoming untraceable.

In the same period £15,671,475 in fines was collected and a total of £23,079,714 in fines was imposed by courts in the county.

An officer for HMCTS said the department was unable to give the amount owed to individual courts in the county. He also said that 'many fines will be ordered to be paid in instalments but the full amount to be paid will be shown as outstanding including any instalments not due to be paid yet'.

COSTLY: Outstanding amounts under £10 are deemed as untraceable

The amount of outstanding fines has been criticised by the TaxPayers' Alliance who said it undermined the court system.

A spokeswoman said: "There's no point in dishing out fines if people are not handing over what they owe."

"If offenders can easily ignore the penalties, then it seriously undermines the whole concept that crime shouldn't pay."

Prince Philip jokes with hospital nurse

BY LAUREN ARCHELL
 lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

THE Duke of Edinburgh told a nurse from the Philippines that her country must be "half empty" - because so many have come to the UK to work for the NHS.

He made the remark during a visit to Luton and Dunstable Hospital on Tuesday where he unveiled a £5.5m cardiac centre.

Both Buckingham Palace and Luton and Dunstable Hospital refused to comment on the duke's private conversation.

However a spokesman from the hospital said: "Luton is a very cosmopolitan town and the working staff at Luton and Dunstable Hospital reflects that."

The 91-year-old royal, who called himself "the world's most experienced curtain puller", was said to be in a "jovial" mood during the visit.

His Royal Highness met with doctors and nurses and was given a demonstration of the cardiology catheterisation laboratory.

Dr Christopher Travill, a consultant cardiologist at the hospital and the clinical director of cardiology, said: "The opening of the Cardiac Centre is the realisation of a dream."

"Around one third of all preventable deaths in Luton and the surrounding area are due to cardiac problems and until now, people had to travel to other specialist centres for investigations which can be very stressful for patients and their families."

Road repairs must get better

SIR - I write regarding your recent story about potholes on our roads in Luton, which said that Luton Borough Council wanted people to report the ones that they see.

I would have thought that the phone lines had been red hot.

I have walked around the streets where I live and the roads are more like the high street in Beirut.

After this walk, I noticed that most of the holes were holes that had been repaired last year and the year before.

Are the council or contractors not doing their jobs properly?

We know it takes about four men to repair a hole big or small, and the cost must be a small fortune.

So I say to your readers, just take time and watch these road menders closely and see let the authority know if they have done a good job.

AD Currant,
Lime Avenue, Luton

What next for football club?

SIR - I was disappointed to learn that Luton Town manager Paul Buckle has left the club.

We are told that this is for 'genuine personal reasons' and I hope this is the case, though I think that many fans calling for his head could not have helped.

We have now had four managers in as

Plan for festival is 'ludicrous'

SIR - Who are the English Defence League trying to kid with their proposed festival.

I looked up all of the names of the speakers they gave to Luton on Sunday, and all had a racist, anti-immigration, anti-Muslim agenda.

I saw no list of possible bands as suggested by Mr Carroll.

I think they are trying to copy the very successful past Love Music Hate Racism festival held in St George's Square, where everyone was welcome as long as they supported the anti-racist cause.

It is a ludicrous proposal in a multicultural town - it should not be allowed to go ahead in any town. I don't agree with the council banning all events in St George's Square or Market Hill, however, as a proud Lutonian I definitely don't wish to see the EDL take over our town. Name and address supplied many seasons, which I'm sure everyone would agree is not a healthy turnover. When Mr Buckle was appointed I remember Gary Sweet saying he would give him adequate time and would not bow to pressure from fans if results weren't going well.

Being 11 points from the playoffs is not acceptable, but at the same time I think the manager should have been given at least until the end of the season.

All we can hope now is that a snap appointment is not made.

Get someone in until the end of the season, with the option of extending their contract. Saying that, who in their right mind would want to take that job on?

Name and address supplied

Against the airport

SIR - Not surprisingly, many of those living outside Luton itself are annoyed at the threatened big increase in planes going overhead day and night when, in contrast to Luton folk, they get no financial benefit.

However, the Luton residents at a recent public meeting we organised were also angry at the prospect of yet more planes going over them in the south of the town.

So how come that apparently Luton's councillors are all for the expansion - where's the democracy there?

Meanwhile, beware the seductive promise of lots more jobs.

Based on the disappointing experience at other expanding airports, there won't be that many: maybe a thousand genuine new jobs spread over the 15 year development - an average of about one a week. Big deal!

John Davis,
LADACAN

Shops won't be there forever

SIR - I was shopping in Hitchin, the other day.

I counted ten shops closed down. Empty. Internet shopping is having its effect on the high street.

Everyone says they prefer to shop online. That's because they know the shops are still there if they need them.

It will be a different story when all the shops are gone from the high street.

So, don't just sit there.

Drag yourself off the sofa, get some fresh air into your lungs and stretch your legs. Go shopping.

It's what we Brits love to do.

Fury over hotel plan for home

BY LAUREN ARCHELL

lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

CONCERNS have been raised over plans to turn an old care home into a bed and breakfast hotel.

It is believed that Luton Borough Council is now looking at tightening the rules regarding planning applications, as it sold The Mount care home in Tennyson Road, Luton, last year on the proviso that the building was used to provide care.

But an application to change the use of the premises into a 35-room hotel has angered both residents, who believe the building will become a hostel, and councillors alike.

When asked about the proposals at a public meeting, councillor Sian Timoney said: "We will be looking in more detail in terms of what this planning application really is."

"We have exactly the same concerns as you."

"In the future the council will have to look at tightening the rules and stipulations about what a property can be used for. There could be scope for stricter controls over particular sites but this has to be within planning laws.

"I have asked officers to investigate this and how we could move forward."

However Kevin Todd, of Kingswood Design Ltd, who is acting as the agent for the proposals, said: "I have no idea about talk of a hostel - the proposals do state clearly that the premises would become a hotel."

Teen girl injured after bus windows shot with BB gun

A 15-YEAR-OLD passenger was injured by flying glass after three bus windows were smashed by BB gun pellets.

The vehicle was travelling along Wenlock Street, Luton, at 2.30pm on Tuesday when the incident happened.

Officers were called to the scene and completed a search of the area and the victim attended the NHS walk-in centre for treatment.

It is believed that three or four white teenagers between 15 and 17 years of age and all wearing hooded tops were seen leaning out of a window in Berkley Path and investigating officer, PC Steve Mosley, would urge anyone who can help identify these boys to contact the police.

PC Mosley said: "Luckily the young girl does not appear to have been seriously injured at this time but this could have ended up with her losing her sight and other people could also have been seriously injured."

Anyone with information can contact PC Mosley, at Bedfordshire Police on 101.

AN advertisement appeared in some of our papers last week from a UKIP MEP. Nothing wrong with that, we'll take most people's money.

However, the MEP, Stuart Agnew, as well as writing about the Common Fisheries Policy, mentioned asbestos.

He said the group to which he belongs in Europe is fighting potential legislation that, quote: 'vilifies harmless white asbestos', while recognising the dangers of blue and brown asbestos.

He also said: 'non-existent individuals with bogus addresses have been trying to change my view on this.'

Well I exist, my email address is out there and real, and I am here to tell you, Mr Agnew, and your mates, that you are talking rubbish and dangerous rubbish at that.

All asbestos is potentially deadly. There is no distinction between white, blue or brown asbestos in the lethal effect it can have.

Roughly 4,000 people in the UK die every year from asbestos related diseases, which make it a bigger killer than road deaths.

So we don't need people in authority playing down its danger. I fail to see why you would do that and believe you all ought to be thoroughly ashamed of yourselves.

Before the death rate declines, due to the substance being

Asbestos is a killer whatever its colour

banned, it will have killed up to a quarter of a million people in this country.

Asbestos is made up of thin fibres, which can break down into thinner fibres.

These cannot be seen by the naked eye but can be breathed in.

These fibres are only dangerous if they are made airborne and breathed in but all types of asbestos fibres are potentially fatal if breathed in.

They are not themselves poisonous or carcinogenic but when asbestos fibres are breathed in they can become stuck in the lungs.

The lungs try to remove them which causes scarring that eventually leads to either asbestosis or a type of lung cancer known as mesothelioma.

The disease is very unpleasant and almost always fatal.

So, let's get rid of asbestos, get rid of it safely and get rid of all of it.

Properly compensate victims and their families.

And make sure all types of asbestos are banned from ever being used again.

ONE trick governments often when making cuts pass the job down the line. As the one-time fixer for Florence, Machiavelli, once said, take the tributes for the good news but let someone else deal with the bad news.

This seems to be happening in the NHS.

In fact I heard on the TV only this week that it should be up to local people to decide what their hospital spends its money on.

All very well, but how do we do that then?

Are local hospitals going to send out referendums so we can vote on whether we would rather have an A&E or maternity wing? And what if we want both? Of course one solution would be to have elected representatives on hospital boards and maybe even elect the chief executive.

If we can choose our Police and Crime Commissioner, why not the boss of our hospitals?

I would lay a small wager that if that option was taken up it would get a higher electoral turnout than the PCCs managed.

Helpers wanted to start new chapter

BY LAUREN ARCHELL

lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

THERE is nothing better than losing yourself in a good book.

Whether it be chick-lit, a murder mystery or an autobiography about a superstar, the escapism you get from reading is incomparable.

But how would you get your reading material if you were ill, or unable to leave your house?

Currently, around 300 residents in Luton are signed up to the free Home Library Service, which is provided by the Luton Library Service.

The system relies on 26 volunteers and four part time staff who pick books for each individual customer and deliver them personally to their homes.

While this important scheme is working well, Luton Library Service is keen to sign up more volunteers to enable more time to be spent with each resident.

Jane Showell, marketing and communities manager for Luton
Culture said: "The Home Library Service is a brilliant idea and is a real lifeline for those who are housebound or struggle to travel.

"We are able to provide between 10 and 20 books in ordinary or large print, jigsaws, audio books, music and audio visual items.

"Both staff and volunteers deliver these items to the customer once every four weeks.

"Customers can also reserve any items free of charge that are in stock in Luton, Bedford Borough or Central Bedfordshire libraries.

"We can also send the books to the library nearest to the volunteers to pick up and deliver."

When asked why the initiative needed more volunteers, Jane said: "It is to do with time.

"We must not forget that sometimes the person delivering the books may be the only person a customer speaks to or even sees on that day.

"Sometimes the customer would like to have a little bit of a chat or a cup of tea, but the volunteer has a commitment to get all of their books delivered.

"It would be lovely if we could make our service even better by being able to spend that extra special time with our customers.

"As the volunteers pick books especially for specific individuals, it would also help if they had time to build up a rapport, and get to really know their likes and dislikes."

But what does being a volunteer really involve?

HELPFUL: One of the service's volunteers delivers books to a customer's home and left, Luton Central Library

Jane added: "It is a commitment, and we need people that can commit regularly."

"Most of our volunteers work for at least a couple of hours per month."

"They can decide to either work with our staff to choose the books for the customer and deliver them, alternatively, they can simply deliver the boxes of books."

"Once our customers get to know someone, quite understandably, they like to see a friendly face and for the same person to come to see them."

"We appreciate everybody leads busy lives and many only have a few hours to spare per month, but we would ask that volunteers do keep it up every month."

"The Home Library Service is something that people really do rely on, and it would be great if we could get more volunteers to become a part of that."

Survey says rail firm is no smooth operator

BY LAUREN ARCHELL

laurena.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

TRAIN operator First Capital Connect (FCC) has been voted the worst service in the country in terms of customer satisfaction according to a survey.

The Which? questionnaire of 7,500 rail commuters found that FCC, which provides services from Luton, had the worst ranking of all train providers with only 40 per cent of customers saying they were satisfied.

The four least popular companies were First Capital Connect, Greater Anglia, First Great Western and South Eastern while Virgin, c2c, London Overground and Mersey Rail were voted the best.

Just this month, Luton South MP Gavin Shaker slammed the operator, saying: "FCC has underperformed throughout this contract, failing to carry out commitments made in their franchise agreement."

Responding to the survey results, an FCC spokesman said: "This research quizzed just 461 people online out of the 170,000

we carry every day. A face-to-face survey by rail watchdog Passenger Focus, which is audited by the Office of National Statistics, shows that 81 per cent of our passengers are satisfied or very satisfied with our service and 13 per cent are neither satisfied nor dissatisfied.

"Just six per cent expressed dissatisfaction."

Gang of four robbers leave man unconscious

ROBBERS knocked a man out by punching him in the head before stealing his phone.

The 26-year-old was approached by a group of four men in an alley between Langley Street and Cumberland Street, Luton, on Tuesday, February 19 at around 3.30pm.

He was then punched in the face and left lying on the floor as the group took his phone.

The first man is described as being black, approximately 25 years old, 6ft tall and of a slim build.

The three others are described as two black men and a white man with an Eastern European appearance. Investigating officer,

Detective Constable Rebecca Kitts, said: "I would urge anyone who saw or heard anything unusual in the area to come forward."

Anyone with information about this incident should call 101.

Students learn new skills during college taster day

NAPKIN origami, pipe bending and clay modelling were on the timetable for Putteridge High School students when they visited Barnfield College for taster sessions.

The 'Have A Go' vocational classes - at the New Bedford Road and Enterprise Way campuses - gave students the chance to get an idea of what they might enjoy doing and where their talents lie ahead of making any decisions about further education. Barnfield South Academy and Barnfield Vale Academy also took part in the sessions, which included bricklaying, nail treatments, computing and changing a wheel on a car.

Barnfield College Principal Miles Dibsall OBE said: "Our 'Have A Go' sessions are a fantastic way for students to try their hand at different subjects to help them make decisions about their future."

Roadworks to shut route for a month

BY LAUREN ARCHELL

lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

A ROAD will be closed for around four weeks to allow 'essential maintenance works to take place.'

Due to the failing existing construction of the route, the council says it has no choice but to fully reconstruct Kent Road in Luton, a process which requires a 24-hour road closure.

The works will commence on Monday, March 4 and it is hoped that the road will re-open by Friday, March 29.

It is expected that there will be some disruption as access to the road by vehicles will be prohibited during this time.

To minimise the period of the closure, the authority's contractor will be working seven days a week, including weekends, with the aim of opening the route as soon as feasibly possible.

Residents are being kept updated with notification letters, advance warnings signs, public meetings and visits by authority officers. Emergency services have been fully consulted and will be able to access Kent Road should the need arise.

Cllr Dave Taylor said: "We appreciate this work may inconvenience some residents, which is why we are doing all we can to ensure it is carried out as quickly as possible."

"We will be making sure that residents who live around the area are kept informed, and I would encourage anyone who has any questions to get in touch."

Homeless charity

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

LAST year a report produced by Compact Voice, an organisation that links charities with governmental organisations, showed that the amount of funding charities were receiving from councils was falling.

It sent Freedom of Information requests to 352 local authorities and found that 56 per cent of councils that responded had reduced their grant funding in the past two years.

And the situation is no different in Luton where a number of voluntary organisations have seen their budgets fall in recent times.

One of them is LAMP, a local Christian charity based on Napier Road that helps homeless people aged between 16-25 find housing.

It has been operating for over 15 years but after losing a large chunk of its funding last year it is facing the possibility of shutting down later this year.

A main source of the charity's income has come from Luton Council in the form of £150,000 per year that went towards its total budget of around £200,000.

However, that revenue stream ceased last year following the council's decision to sign a contract with Penrose, a third sector organisation, for various services in the town including assistance with homeless people.

The new contract replaced the authority's previous agreements with 14 other service providers in the town.

John Archer, the CEO, of LAMP said although he understood that economic times were putting a strain on public finances, he was hoping to convince the council that the work LAMP does was worth funding.

He said: "In terms our services we provide help with independent living in the private sector and negotiating with landlords so that the young people can have somewhere to live."

"We give advice to over 200 homeless people a year and

in funding plea

AT WORK: Mr Archer said LAMP's team of 11 work hard to help as many young people as they can ings found that the charity's work was bringing a lot of benefit to the town.

He said: "When we gave them the numbers for the work LAMP did it actually generated a social value to the town of £800,000.

"So we take in about £200,000 a year for our operating costs but our value to the town in terms of the work we do is worth about £800,000 according to this model.

"We are all about looking after our young people until the day they are able to stand on their own. We actually have a saying at LAMP that we want to marinate our young people and not microwave them. We don't want to offer short-term support.

"But when you lose 75 per cent of your funding you will struggle. If we go under then all the young people we have on our books could lose their tenancies and become homeless. Most of the landlords have given them the accommodation because we are supporting them.

"The young people would go back on the council's books as they have a statutory duty of care for them and the burden of looking after them would go back to the town in some shape or form.

"But I am hopeful. We have meetings coming up with the council and we are hoping to show them that the work we do is worth saving."

house about 50 a year depending on what have available. We also talk to about 2,500 children in schools all over the town and the community every year about the dangers and problems of homelessness."

Earlier this year, a government-funded study commissioned by the national homeless charity Crisis and undertaken by the University of York was launched.

The research, called 'Making It Count' looked at the 'social value' that different voluntary organisations gave to their communities. Mr Archer said he used it to get an idea of how effective LAMP was. The find-

Police dog welfare project is extended

BY LAUREN ARCHELL
lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

A NEW voluntary scheme to check the welfare of police dogs is the first to encompass three police force areas.

The former Hertfordshire Police Authority scheme, endorsed by the UK's largest dog welfare charity, Dogs Trust, has been extended to cover the three counties of Bedfordshire, Cambridgeshire and Hertfordshire, under the auspices of the three new Police and Crime Commissioners (PCCs).

Bedfordshire's PCC, Olly Martins (pictured on the left), said: "The dogs are an important part of the policing family and I think it's reassuring for the public to know that we have independent verification that they are healthy, happy and well trained members of the team."

"The animal welfare visitors do a tremendous job and we are grateful to them for volunteering their time and expertise."

"There is no suggestion that any dog is anything other than well cared for, but this scheme demonstrates that."

"On the other hand, in the, unlikely, event of anything going tragically wrong we would be alerted very quickly."

Mick Chidgey, Assistant Director at Dogs Trust, said: "The welfare of working dogs is critically important – they have the same basic needs of any intelligent, sensitive animal. We are pleased to oversee this independent scheme."

Since the tragic death of a police dog in another force area whilst training in 2003, animal welfare visiting schemes were recommended by the Association of Chief Police Officers.

Residents invited to Women's Day celebration

Diversity celebrated by college students

BY LAUREN ARCHELL
lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

FLAGS from all over the world were flying high as Luton Sixth Form College celebrated its rich ethnic and cultural mix on 'Diversity Day.'

A host of different activities took place as students and staff embraced this year's theme of "different but equal".

The national flags of countries from Bangladesh to Jamaica, and Poland to South Africa were hoisted and flew proudly above the main college entrance throughout the day.

Inside the foyer, a map of the world was displayed and students were invited to put a sticker on the country where they or their parents were born. There was also a quiz featuring questions in some of the different languages spoken at the college.

But the highlight was a sold-out evening variety performance.

The old adage 'the show must go on' proved apt as the cast and crew overcame minor technical problems at the start to put on a showcase, featuring singing, rapping, dancing and a fashion show.

Diversity Day raised £371.07 for the Sophie Lancaster Foundation which supports sub-cultures in communities.

Student development advisor Butch Fazal said: "The day was warmly welcomed by staff and students and it demonstrated the importance of recognised and embracing the diverse cultures of everyone at the college."

Event organised to help people get into work

A FREE jobs, skills and training fair has been scheduled to help get residents into work.

Organised by the council, Marsh Farm Futures and Job Centre Plus the event will take place on Wednesday, February 27 at Futures House, The Moakes, Luton, between 10am and 4pm.

Employers will be in attendance, as well as local colleges, training providers and careers advisors.

Support is also available for anyone recently made or about to be made redundant, plus a CV surgery and top tips for online applications.

Cllr Sian Timoney said: "Life without a job bringing in a decent regular salary is tough.

"But with the Central Government's welfare benefit changes, it's suddenly getting a whole lot tougher."

Mother's Day

10th March

SHOW HER HOW MUCH YOU CARE

Mother's Day is one of the best ways to make every mom feel special, loved and cared for. A day dedicated to motherhood, it gives a child umpteen opportunity to express to his/her mom, as to how special and precious she is for him/her.

Whilst mother's day is celebrated on different days and for different reasons in many countries around the world the central tenet of honouring your mother is universal. The day is closely associated with the giving of mothers day gifts such as flowers, chocolates or general pampering type gifts. And also the sending of cards, which the greeting card industry has exploited to the full!

While no amount of money can ever repay our moms for what they've done for us, it doesn't mean we're not trying!

It's a bad day at the office for Die Hard action series

FILM REVIEW

A GOOD DAY TO DIE HARD (12A)

Running Time: 1hr 35mins
Out Now

WHAT an absolutely sacrilegious way to treat one of the most beloved franchises of all-time.

Bruce Willis must have simply returned for the payday in this messy action film that bears little or no resemblance to the John McClane we know and – for a lot of people anyway – love.

It's no wonder he looked so disinterested on his recent The One Show appearance – him complaining about the bizarrely titled fifth instalment was the least of his worries.

This is simply not a good day for the man – who brought us 'The best action film ever' with the 1988 original – simply treading water in this Moscow-set actioner, and he seems like he can't wait to get home to count his cash.

This is arguably the first 'banner' title of the year, and pales in comparison to January's Oscar-competing releases – with no heart and a clichéd script that would have been lucky to get an 'F' at GCSE drama.

Granted, the sequels got progressively sillier after the five-star first film – even Vengeance and 4.0 were entertaining despite their flaws – but this is nothing short of a blatant cash-in that isn't worthy of the Die Hard name.

This time McClane goes to Russia in search of his recently incarcerated son Jack (the very wooden Jai Courtney from TV series Spartacus:

War of the Damned), who then turns out to be a CIA agent protecting Commie turncoat Komarov (Sebastian Koch), who is about to spill the beans on the Chernobyl nuclear disaster.

To make things worse the film has been cut to a '12A' certificate for the UK market from its 'R-rated' US rating (which should have meant at least a '15'), and only really boasts a generic car chase, a couple of action (including one fairly decent) set-pieces and an okay-ish twist.

It has also been slashed to barely 90 minutes – by far the shortest Die Hard film – and that was more than enough for this brainless slice of action.

And even when the trademark McClane humour kicks in – you're so disappointed it's hard to even raise a snigger.

As a standalone action movie it may have been just passable, but this is the Kingdom of the Crystal Skull of the franchise – and I simply wish they had never made it.

It would probably be best for the series to now die, but here's hoping at some point they'll complete the second trilogy with a final film worthy of the name: John McClane – one of the finest action heroes of the last generation.

Indulge your sweet tooth at Luton Hoo

WHAT'S ON

HOTEL CHOCOLAT

Luton Hoo Hotel & Spa
Monday, March 4, 12pm arrival

THERE will be a delicious theme at the next ladies' luncheon club event at Luton Hoo Hotel, Golf & Spa.

The event next month will feature a guest speaker from Hotel Chocolat, the British chocolatier and cocoa grower that has 55 stores in the UK and five in the USA and Middle East.

Hotel Chocolat was launched by British entrepreneurs, Angus Thirlwell and Peter Harris, about 20 years ago and since then has grown into a global brand.

In addition to talking about the chocolate products – and of course providing samples – the event will also showcase the 'cocoju-venate' range of cocoa-based beauty products.

The latest event is one of a series of luncheons that will continue throughout the year with guest speakers from the world of food, wine and horticulture.

Any ladies that book all four lunches by March 1 will receive a free voucher for morning coffee at Luton Hoo, which includes a selection of pastries and a muffin, freshly squeezed orange juice and freshly ground coffee or a pot of tea.

Membership of the Luton Hoo luncheon club is free and all local ladies are welcome to attend, subject to availability.

The event price of £39.50 includes a welcome glass of Champagne and canapés on arrival and a three-course lunch with a glass of wine and coffee.

On the menu will be warm wobbly bottom goats cheese tart with a tasting of beetroot, boudin of Guinea fowl (sweet carrot puree, fine bean parcel and smoked garlic mash), and orange bread and butter pudding with vanilla bean anglaise.

Romantic thriller set to make move from book to film

CINEMA

MEGAN'S GAME – THE FILM

CITY financier and Luton-based author Tony Drury's debut novel Megan's Game is set to be made into a feature film due for release in spring next year.

The critically acclaimed writer's romantic thriller is a love story with a murderous twist, set against the beautiful backdrops of the Snowdonian Welsh coast, the Cote D'Azur and London. Megan's Game has the glitz, glamour and intrigue of the City.

Working on the film will be producer Paul Tucker (of Braveheart and four of the Bond movies) and scriptwriter Crispian Sallis who has received numerous Oscar nominations for his past work.

Initial funding for the feature film has been secured and Sallis is currently developing the screenplay.

Drury has just finished penning his third book Cholesterol which is due for release in the summer. His second novel The Deal was published last October.

You can download Drury's books from his website at www.tonydrury.com where you can also find out more information.

DACIA DUSTED

Dacia's Duster SUV comes to market with Renault power but an identity all of its own.

Cheap 4x4s and Crossovers like the Nissan Qashqai are already firmly entrenched in the segment this model wants to target, but the Dacia is armed with a list price that looks set to make a step change in how we buy new cars. Even with diesel power and all-wheel drive, as tested here, it's still at least 25% less than obvious rivals. Interested? You should be. Entry-level Duster model prices are based around the provision of a breathless 105bhp 1.6-litre petrol engine. Most UK buyers though, will give this variant little more than a cursory glance on their way to sign up for the infinitely preferable 110bhp 1.5-litre dCi diesel we tried. On paper, this unit doesn't seem much quicker than the petrol version, the sixty sprint occupying 11.8s in the 2WD model and 12.5s in the 4WD on the way to a top speed that again is around 104mph. In practice though, there's all the difference in the world between petrol and diesel options, since for dCi buyers, pulling power rises by fully 60% from 148 to 240Nm. As for handling, well it may well come as quite some surprise then, to learn that the market consensus in Europe, where this car has already been on sale some time, is that this Duster has the sort of ride/handling compromise that would shame rivals many thousands of pounds more expensive.

It's also very capable off road, thanks to a 210mm ground clearance and a neat Nissan-developed three-mode 4x4 system

Danny Mills sustained an injury yesterday

Injuries pile up for Dees in cup exit

RUGBY UNION

BY TIM BARTLETT
sport@lsmmedia.co.uk

DUNSTABIANS crashed out of the semi-final of the Bedfordshire Cup 14-5 away to Biggleswade, a team they have already beaten twice in the league this season.

"We expected no favours," said Dees Prop Simon George. "We had a poor game. Some key players were missing, but discipline is what we really missed. We gave away too many penalties".

Matt Anderson had put the Dees ahead in the first half but two first-half penalties and a home try meant Biggleswade led 11-5 at the interval.

Incredibly, neither side could score in the second period, as the Dunstabians first team squad suffered further damage.

Injuries to Simon Calder, Tom Evans and James Knowle were compounded when Danny Mills left the ground in an ambulance following knee ligament damage.

Stockwood Park narrowly missed out at home to Stewarts & Lloyds, losing 14-10 in a game that could have gone either way.

"We came second," said first team manager Tony Harman. "We were not beaten." Stockwood Park led 7-6 at the interval as Casimir Abaka showed the Stewarts & Lloyds defence a clean pair of heels, scoring for the second week.

In an incredibly tight second period, James Hankey kicked Stockwood Park's only points, which established a 10-6 lead when he scored.

Stewart & Lloyds could not be contained, however, and scored an unconverted try, and kicked a penalty late on to seal a well earned 14-10 win.

Stockwood Park can at least take consolation from a losing bonus point.

"I couldn't be prouder. We were unlucky to lose," said Harman.

"We certainly played well enough to win, we've a new coaching regime that has taken a bit of time to establish itself.

"But the players are really starting to respond, our fitness is excellent, we're building spirit and the skills to match."

Without regular number eight Ben Griffin, Stockwood Park turned to Eric Butler to anchor the Lutonian Pack and he did not disappoint.

"Eric was my man of the match," said Harman. "He was excellent, but so were the four Uni Boys. They are doing brilliantly for their first season and Casimir, especially, is doing particularly well. I'm really pleased."

Sweet nothings lead to mystery around Buckle

COMMENT

THE Luton Town press officer, Andrew Barringer, has not missed a Hatters game in four years until this week. He was absent from the 1-1 draw with Macclesfield on Tuesday as he was in Austria celebrating his 30th birthday. He did not miss much and, in hindsight, he will probably be relieved to have been spared watching Luton scrape a draw against a side who played three quarters of the match with ten men.

But how the club's executive team wish he was around this week to help fight the fires following the departure of Paul Buckle. Indeed, the fact his leave was not cancelled – as has been the case at some league clubs when a big story is about to break – confirms the exit of Buckle came completely out of the blue.

There were no signs, not publicly at least. Gary Sweet, the managing director, spoke in glowing terms last Thursday about Buckle's reign and seemed determined to change the club's revolving door policy of hiring and firing managers.

Buckle, he said, was here for the long term and there was not a trace of truth in the club lining up Steve Robinson as a successor. It was, however, fascinating Buckle took exception to the question about Robinson posed by a reporter from this newspaper and retreated into silence when the same reporter tried to ask him a question after the Millwall game.

Buckle was, you suspect, either riled at someone having the temerity to ask a perfectly legitimate question about his future on the eve of him leading a non-league side in the fifth round of the FA Cup. Or he was starting to feel on shaky ground and knew defeat against Millwall would mean the cup run would no longer be able to gloss over the mess Luton are making of their promotion push. He had become tetchy.

Yet there were still no portents to Buckle leaving so swiftly. If anything, a new contract seemed more likely than the sack.

Sweet and the board clearly had faith in Buckle as just last month they sanctioned the hefty purchases of Scott Neilson, David Martin, Wayne Thomas, Jonathan Smith and Steve McNulty. They also backed Buckle's decision to replace Paul Carden with Stuart Cash. Allowing a manager to reshape his coaching staff and playing squad are not the actions of a board looking to make a change.

Buckle also seemed content. He talked with determination and passion in the aftermath of the defeat to Millwall about outlining his root and branch plan to change the culture of the club and resuscitate the promotion bid with Sweet on Monday. The meeting ended up spilling over to Tuesday morning and, by the evening, Sweet had changed his tune, believing the parting of the ways was "best for Luton".

The discrepancy between the amount of money he would be given to do this could well have been a sticking point. Buckle would argue, with some justification, he was responsible for generating the unbudgeted income of more than £500,000 for the FA Cup run.

Sweet may well have been under pressure from the board to plough it back into the coffers to help the club become solvent.

The departure of Buckle was dressed up as mutual consent and for "genuine personal reasons" – as opposed to disingenuous personal reasons, I guess – but more often than not, this means sacked.

The reaction of the players was fascinating. They were told by Sweet in the hotel before the Macclesfield game Buckle had left and were said to be dumbfounded, even those who Buckle had inherited and who had started to be marginalised.

The confidentially agreements surrounding contracts pay-offs mean we may never know the full reasons surrounding the sudden exit of Buckle. Yet one thing we do know is that there is never a dull moment at Luton.

Always expect the unexpected.

Hot-shot Roache downs Jets with hat-trick

FOOTBALL ROUND-UP

BY JONATHAN PAXTON
sport@lsmmedia.co.uk

A Lee Roache hat-trick fired Dunstable Town to a 4-0 win in their crucial top of the table clash at Oxhey Jets and move them ten points clear in the Spartan South Midlands Premier Division.

Unbeaten Town travelled to Hertfordshire knowing that defeat would close the gap to four points with Oxhey having a game in hand.

Roache eased any nerves when he headed home from a Newman Carney corner on 14 minutes.

The lead was doubled on 65 minutes when Roache again headed in from a Carney free kick and any doubts were put to bed when he completed his hat-trick on 86 minutes.

Lee Roache scored a hat-trick utes, his 41st goal of the season.

Nathan Frater fired a free kick in for a fourth goal in the final minute, the Blue's 100th league goal this season. They now sit ten points clear at the top of the table.

Joint manager Paul Reeves was full of praise for his team. "Lee Roache's movement and finishing were brilliant and our centre halves kept their danger man, Lewis Putman, very quiet," he said.

"We're keeping our feet firmly on the ground, there are still 14 games to go this season and we're taking nothing for granted."

AFC Dunstable fell to a 2-1 defeat at Creasey Park against London Colney with manager Alex Butler critical of his defence.

AFC gifted their opponents the lead on 25 minutes when a sloppy ball across the defence was intercepted for London Colney to score.

Lee Burgoyne and Jay Blackett had chances for AFC but another defensive mix up on 60 minutes allowed the visitors to make it 2-0.

Jack Lauder pulled a goal back on 75 minutes after a goalmouth scramble and James Baldry was unlucky to see his late header tipped onto the bar.

Barton Rovers were again unlucky, losing 2-1 to third placed Biggleswade Town in the Evo-Stik Division One Central Division.

Rovers went behind in the first minute through a Lee Allison penalty but were back level on 11 minutes when James Bent scored from the penalty spot after Bilal Hasan had been fouled.

In an end to end match, Barton created a number of chances but were made to pay on 80 minutes when Rovers old-boy Paul Barnes headed Biggleswade's winner.

Having narrowly lost at second placed Godalming in midweek, this was another harsh lesson for Rovers who sit in 12th place.

BLUE SQUARE BET PREMIER

Luton Town 2
Mansfield 3

BY TOM SHARP
sport@lsmmedia.co.uk

THE midweek departure of Paul Buckle may have seen a fresh approach for a side devoid of ideas but a mind-boggling week ended with more misery as Mansfield struck late to grab a crucial victory and add further doubt over Luton's fading promotion charge.

It is now seven Blue Square Bet Premier games without a win for the Hatters and yesterday's result showed the problems at Kenilworth Road are deeper rooted than the removal of Buckle.

Scott Rendell and Andre Gray strikes either side of half-time helped Luton twice come from behind but a 90th-minute winner by Lindon Meikle, four minutes after coming on as a substitute, gave Luton no time to recover.

Paul Cox's side are now purring like the Aston Martin he received from chairman John Radford for a demolition of beleaguered Barrow of late, while Luton are misfiring badly.

Indeed, the contrasting confidence and form of the two sides can be summed up neatly by their recent results against Barrow. Luton lost 1-0 while Mansfield thrashed them 8-1.

Despite sitting eighth in the league and without a win in six matches, caretaker boss Alan Neilson was ever the optimist in the build-up, believing Luton could still catch the leaders. He was able to call on Wayne Thomas, who finally received international clearance, but the former Stoke and Burnley defender was probably wondering why he had left behind the Greek sunshine on a freezing afternoon in Bedfordshire.

He wasted no time in showing his leadership qualities when he put a flea in the ear of team mate David Martin.

Luton were largely chasing shadows early on as Mansfield stroked the ball around with a swagger. The goal they had been threatening duly arrived when a rash lunge from Steve McNulty on the half our created an opportunity for Matt Green, who grabbed a late equaliser in the 2-2 draw between the two sides in November. He coolly side-footed past Mark Tyler. Alarm bells were again starting to ring in defence.

Scott Rendell bailed his team mate out with his 12th goal of the season, but Mansfield again scored again before the break, Colin Daniel lashing home right on half time.

A few harsh words at half time resulted in Gray restoring parity as the home side turned up the heat. The goal was a good sign as it broke a run of games, stretching back to the 6-1 trouncing of Barrow seven games ago, since Town scored more than one in a game.

It looked like Luton would go on to win the game but they could not find the killer blow.

Gray was a menace, Rendell lurked menacingly and substitute Stuart Fleetwood added more potency but they could not unlock the visitors' door.

Instead it was Mansfield who grabbed the winner. Meikle compounding a miserable week for the Hatters with an injury-time winner. The new manager will have

Dallow prove a big hit in their debut show

BOXING

THE staging of Dallow Amateur Boxing Club's first home show last weekend was capped by their brightest prospect being named the fighter of the night.

Clubs from various part of the country descended on Luton for the 12-bout card at Dallow Learning Community Centre.

Ahtisham Fariad was involved in the eighth bout of the night and his unanimous decision win over Alexander Smith, from Northampton ABC, won the 14-year-old from Barnfield South Academy the Boxer of the Night from the ABA Officials.

There were more local winners in the shape of Zain Malik, the 17 year old from Luton Boys

ABC, Kayamba Prosper, the 28-year-old from Hockwell Ring ABC, Luton Boys' Martin Rooney, Sam King from Luton Farley ABC and Suleman Khan, the 14 year old from Dallow ABC.

The show was the culmination of the work from a new team of volunteers who came together to take the club, who were first formed in 2008, to the next level.

"Boxing is one of the fastest routes to fitness and a way of keeping kids out of trouble," said coach Aftab Hussein. "It helps to relieve stress builds confidence and improve mental acuity. The club believe the lessons taught at training helps shape a man to become responsible and builds good character. Boxing has kept many youngsters away from drugs and gangs."

'Fans know more than players'

FOOTBALL*BY LUKE PETERSON

sport@lsnmedia.co.uk

HATTERS debutant Wayne Thomas says his mum knew about the departure of Paul Buckle before any of the players.

Buckle left as manager of Luton just hours before the midweek game at Macclesfield and Thomas says neither he nor his teammates have been kept abreast of the situation.

"The fans seem to know what's happening before the players do," said Thomas.

"My mum text me to ask me how I felt about Paul leaving about one minute after we'd had the announcement from the chief executive."

Thomas had a brief spell playing alongside Buckle at Torquay during the mid-nineties and was awaiting his first game under the 42-year-old's guidance since signing in early February.

However, during the three weeks it took for the defender's international clearance to come through, Buckle had vacated his post as manager.

"It was a bit of a weird one that he was no longer the manager and I hadn't had the chance to play for him," said the 33-year-old. "He was influential in me coming here."

"I liked his direction and I liked what he'd done with Torquay. He half made my mind up for me to come here. It was disappointing that I wasn't able to play for him."

Having made his long-awaited debut in yesterday afternoon's 3-2 defeat at home to promotion-pushing Mansfield, Thomas, the former Stoke defender, hopes the squad can adhere to Buckle's parting words and get their own chase for promotion back on track.

"We came in and everyone had a chat with him individually," said Thomas. "He spoke to the lads as a group and that was that."

"He's wished the lads good luck and said he's got real belief in us that we can achieve something this year."

Neilson in plea for new boss

FOOTBALL*BY TOM SHARP

sport@lsnmedia.co.uk

LUTON Town caretaker boss Alan Neilson feels a new manager is vital to stabilise the Hatters' season.

The search for Paul Buckle's successor is in full swing but the uncertainty is undermining their promotion bid, with Luton following up Tuesday's 1-1 draw at Macclesfield with a 3-2 defeat at home to Mansfield. Luton face Braintree, Stockport and Nuneaton in the next nine days and are still searching for their first away win since October.

"We need a new face that will gee the lads up," said Neilson.

"Myself, Stuart [Cash] and Carl [Emberson] have done everything we can but we now need someone to get the better out of the guys and to make them lift their game."

Luton remain in eighth and 11 points off the Blue Square Bet Premier playoffs and time is starting to run out on their promotion charge. Defensive mistakes continue to undermine their challenge, with one from Steve McNulty yesterday leading to one of Mansfield's goals.

"It has been all season really," said Neilson. "Far too many mistakes and as a defender you cannot do that."

THE rapidinchloss CLINIC

One of our success stories...

Who: Leslie Carey, 39

Where: The Rapid Inch Loss Clinic Nuneaton

When: 6 Weeks, June 2011

What Happened: Leslie had Ultrasonic Liposuction on her stomach and inner thigh but only lost  $\frac{3}{4}$  inch after 1st visit. She then lost 2  $\frac{1}{2}$  inches after her 2nd visit, before losing 16 inches in total over the course of her therapy.

How: We focussed Ultrasonic Liposuction on Leslie's inner thigh and stomach once a week (1 session on each area) for 6 weeks. After her 1st session Leslie ate take away food on 4 of the evenings, as well as drinking several pints of beer most nights. This resulted in slow progress. However, after only losing  $\frac{3}{4}$  inch in week 1, Leslie decided to drink a little more moderately, ate more balanced meals and as a result she then lost 2  $\frac{1}{2}$  inches between her 2nd & 3rd treatments. Leslie then resolved to adjust her lifestyle, she started eating & drinking in moderation, while making an effort to be more active generally. Leslie went on to lose 16 inches in total over her course which took in 12 sessions each on her stomach & inner thighs.

Why was Ultrasonic Liposuction Needed: Leslie has a demanding job as a director of an engineering firm, this lead to Leslie having a poor diet of take away food & beer, with little activity in her daily life due to a lack of time. Leslie arrived for her 1st session as a size 16, standing at 5' 6" tall

Where are they now: After achieving her target size and shape Leslie had lost 16 inches from her stomach and inner thigh. After completing her course and armed with her improved lifestyle and body shape Leslie felt inspired to take up Exercise! She began walking 3 evenings a week and therefore needed no more sessions to maintain her new size and shape!
